

Solutions for Success: Floor Stock Software for Strengthening Foodservice

Many organizations lack a reliable system of record for tracking requisitions leading to shortages, overstocking, and additional carrying costs. The TRAX Platform optimizes requisition management for hospitals, campuses, and offices in one user-friendly system that centralizes data for dynamic reporting and makes managing multiple hospitality stations simple.

Flexible Technology

The TRAX Platform delivers a broad range of capabilities that would otherwise require multiple disparate systems. Our web-based software has countless configurations that can be molded to meet the needs of you and your customers.

Superior Service

To us, SaaS means Service as a Software. Improving the lives of foodservice operators is ingrained in our DNA. That's why our support team averages over a 90% satisfaction rating, exceeding expectations of customer support industry-wide.

The CaterTrax Effect

A client survey on the impact of the TRAX Platform boast these impressive results:

50-75% more efficient by restoring coordination and control with back of the house tools.

75-100% more accurate due to improved communications with customers and staff.

10-20 hours per week saved by streamlining operational management and minimizing mistakes.

"CaterTrax is a life saver! I could not imagine doing my month-end figures without the great reports CaterTrax can give you. I love this user-friendly software!"
